ADDENDA.

655 Cent, 1794. Hays 12. Very fine, obv. lightly corroded. 1

656 Cent, 1799 over '98. A strong, perfectly centered impression, medium light olive shade, in absolutely fine preservation, in fact a trifle less than uncirculated; hair unworn; a short, slight, old scratch on breast; highest point on forehead and cheek, a little chafed. The Catalogues of the Parmelee, Winsor, Brown, or others of notable collections, which have been publicly disposed of during the past 15 years, do not tell of its equal. I believe it to be the choicest specimen of this year and variety in existence, and by far the most valuable United States Cent that it has ever been my pleasure to offer. 1
